

PUBLIC NOTICE
MEETING OF THE
NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH COMMITTEE AND COMMON COUNCIL OF YOUNGTOWN, ARIZONA

The Town of Youngtown provides notice that it will conduct its Neighborhood Watch Committee and Town Council Meeting on March 18, 2023 through in-person and technological means. Board members and Council members may attend the Neighborhood Watch Committee and Town Council meeting in-person or via video/telephone conference, as authorized by A.R.S. Section 38-431(4).

The in-person meeting will occur at 12033 N. Clubhouse Square, Youngtown AZ 85363, in the Town Council Chambers. The public may also listen to the Neighborhood Watch Committee and Town Council meeting by calling in telephonically using the conference call and meeting identification number provided below. Please state your name when you call in, then mute your telephone for the remainder of the call to ensure the Neighborhood Watch Committee and Town Council can conduct its meeting without interference.

If appearing remotely, you may provide comments by muting and unmuting your phone when recognized by the Board and Council during public comment portions of the agenda. Chat is not available. You may also submit a public comment form to Town Clerk Nicole Smart, nsmart@youngtownaz.org, at least one hour before the meeting to submit a written comment. All comments must be submitted in writing before the meeting or verbally made during the meeting by either coming up to the podium to speak or unmuting your phone when recognized.
